ESSA IV level report of a detailed logic model and a planned study/currently underway research study.

Statement by EduEvidence's College of Reviewers

ROYO has an ESSA Tier IV certification, as documented in its logic model and in the review by the independent third-party LXD Research. This confirms that ROYO meets the ESSA criteria for "Demonstrates a Rationale," reflecting a strong research-based design grounded in learning science. The product includes a detailed logic model linking design to intended outcomes.
